Van Nuys, California, FUPPPS International Headquarters: InasPawprints.com, proud host of FUPPPS, The Federation of Unacknowledged Partnerships among Pooches, Pussycats and Sturgeons, reports that the FUPPPS movement has grown so vast that it has moved onto a website of its own.

Loyal FUPPPS readers have signed the FUPPPS pet-i-tion demanding our politicians tell us where they stand on same sex muttrimony for our pets and other fellow critters. Others have signed up for NIPTual banns to announce the engagement of their same-sex marriage-bound pets. Many loyal readers have written from all over the globe to share their heartwarming stories of same-sex wedded bliss. FUPPPS has received soulful tales from Australia, the steps of City Hall in San Francisco, and points far East and West, from species as diverse as cows, poodles and kangaroos.

The public is invited to find out more about the organization and its home country, FUPPPSYLVANIA, at www.FUPPPS.com.

NOTE: FUPPPS Goodies, including pins, bumper stickers, tee shirts for humans and pets, and much more, are now available through the online store FUPPPS shares with InasPawprints.com, at www.CafePress.com/PawprintsStore.
