

The Living History Project at UCLA

Calling Seniors, 55+

Enhance intergenerational understanding. Become a part of history.

- Share your life stories with UCLA students as well as each other
- Help the younger generation understand the lives -- and needs -- of seniors
- Help the students learn life lessons through both your stories and personal interactions
- Be a part of history – your stories, both written and oral, will be recorded for the web and other media

DATES Five meetings, weekly on Wednesday afternoons
Feb. 6: Orientation, Meetings: Feb. 13, Feb. 20, Feb. 27, March 5

TIMES 1:30 pm - 4:00pm

FEE FREE to the public

PLACE UCLA Hillel House, across from UCLA campus on Hilgard
Free transportation to and from UCLA will be provided courtesy Felicia Mahood Senior Multipurpose Center. Pickup and drop-off at Felicia Mahood, 11338 Santa Monica Blvd., L.A., 90025

Refreshments will be provided.

INFO AND SIGN-UP: 310.471.5048 or e-mail Ina at InaH@InasPawprints.com

PREREQUISITES: No prior writing or speaking experience is necessary, but we do require attendance in at least one of our free Monday morning writing classes at Felicia Mahood Senior Multipurpose Center. Classes meet Mondays 10:15 am-noon. No class Dec. 31.

Join us! You'll meet some of our members, authors of the Amazon.com Top Seller Stories From The Heart, Vol. 2, many of whom never wrote, or never published before, and the newly released Stories from the Heart, vol. 3, and you'll get an opportunity to create short pieces for our next book, plus meet some very interesting young people.

Co-Facilitators .....

Ina Hillebrandt, Fortune 500 consultant, speaker, writing and life enrichment teacher/trainer. and author of Amazon.com Top Seller Pawprints, How to Write Your Memoirs...Fun Prompts to Make Writing...and Reading...Your Life Stories a Pleasure! and other books; UCLA students Adena Schutzman, program originator and co-designer, and Aria Safar, program associate.